三. 阅读理解 (每小题 2 分, 共 30 分)

* A *

We'd love to say there are no rules here — but for everyone's safety and fun, we do have just a few ...

FIRST, THE DON'TS

- Adults, DON'T leave your kids at home. No adults are allowed in the museum without kids.
- Kids, DON'T leave your parents at home. No one under 18 is allowed without an adult.
- Adults, DON'T think that older kids can visit the museum alone. Kids, no matter how old, should be watched at all times. In fact, your kids will enjoy spending time with you!
- DON'T bring food or drinks into the exhibit (展览) areas. Enjoy your snacks at our Tiny Bites Cafe, or outside in the park.
- DON'T smoke while at the museum.
- DON'T run around or shout at the museum.
- And last, DON'T be surprised if we ask you to please be nice, walk slowly and play gently (文雅地). We are here to keep you safe and make sure everyone has a good time.

AND NOW, THE DO'S

- DO touch, explore (探索) and play!
- DO ask lots of questions!
- DO talk to our staff! We wear green shirts and love talking to visitors!
- DO give us your feedback (反馈意见) — good, bad or whatever! That is how we learn!

RULES FOR GROUPS

- One adult is required for every 10 kids.
- Adults must stay with kids at all times while at the museum.

Bill: My favorite book is The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch (女巫) and the Wardrobe (衣橱) by C. S. Lewis. It's about four children who find a magical land inside a wardrobe. A witch makes the land winter forever. The children help save the magical land from the witch with the help of Aslan, a great talking lion. The children become leaders. But then they come back to our world ... until their next journey in Narnia.

Eric: I like reading The Magic School Bus written by Joanna Cole best. The magic school bus can go everywhere, even inside the human body. I like Arnold, a boy in Ms. Frizzle's class. He's really funny and he's always scared.

Grace: One of my all-time favorite books is Ugly by Donna Jo Napoli. It's the story of an ugly young duck. It's a little sad, but after you finish reading it, you'll want to read it again and again. The way Donna Jo Napoli writes is special, and you can really get inside the characters' heads. It sounds like music when it's being read to you.

Sally: My favorite book is called Bloomability by Sharon Creech. It's about a girl whose parents are always on the move. Then she is suddenly taken to Switzerland by her aunt and uncle, away from her family. Interested? Then read this book!

Jane: My favorite book is Nancy Drew Mystery (疑案) Stories: The Whispering Statue (低语的雕塑) by Carolyn Keene. I have read it about four times! It is about a girl who loves solving mysteries, and she finds a statue that whispers. Well, I'm not going to tell you the story. I'll let you read it for yourself.

根据材料内容选择最佳答案。

()6. In Bill's favorite book, four children fight against _____.

- A. a lion B. a witch
C. a wardrobe D. a magician

()7. After finishing reading Ugly, readers may feel _____.

- A. scared B. sad
C. excited D. shocked

()8. Sally's favorite book is written by _____.

- A. C. S. Lewis B. Joanna Cole
C. Donna Jo Napoli D. Sharon Creech

()9. Tina is interested in special journeys, so she may like to read _____.

- A. Ugly
